

 Reading The Iron Man by Ted Hughes The Whale by Vita Murrow Empire's End - A Roman's Story by Leila Rasheed	 Writing Jane Considine (TWS) Narrative writing based on The Iron Man by Ted Hughes Information leaflet about banning social media for under 13's Narrative based on The Whale by Vita Murrow	 Maths White Rose Place value. Addition and Subtraction using counters, base 10, number lines and place value charts
Living things & their habitats Classification of animals and plants. Identify differences and similarities of animals and plants and investigate ways to sort them Understand the difference between vertebrates and invertebrates.	 RE Inclusion & connection Learning about Religious Traditions, Faith and Non - Religious Worldviews Living by rules - explore how different religions provide guidance on how to live respectfully with each other	Key Theme - Power Romans Learn about where the Romans were from, why they were so powerful, how far their empire stretched, and what influence they had on us, here in Britain.
 PSHE PSHE Resilience bounce back	 ART ART - Sculpture and Collage Looking at the work of architect Zaha Hadid Drawing landscapes in pen and pencil	 PE PE Hub - OAA - outdoor adventurous activities Athletics - running, jumping, throwing
MANDARIN The children will learn how to speak common words and phrases in Mandarin. They will learn a little about the people, culture and festivals of China.	Switched on Computing Online safety Sharing experiences and opinions - writing blog posts	 Music Including: Singing a wide variety of songs individually and chorally. Steel Pans and Violins

